Members Interested in Speaking

G-1

When you are asked as a member of Al-Anon or Alateen to speak before an audience for the first time, you may experience a momentary sinking feeling in the pit of your stomach, wobbly knees, clammy hands, and an overall sensation of terror. But after these perfectly normal reactions pass and you have heard yourself saying, "Yes," when you really meant, "No," you will find that a wonderfully enlightening adventure is in store for you. With a little encouragement, and a reliance on a Higher Power, everyone can speak. The only ingredient needed is the willingness to try. Members report that speaking before a group adds another dimension of growth to their Al-Anon experience. It's an opportunity to discover a new side of yourself, one you may not have realized existed.

WHEN ASKED TO SPEAK, FIND OUT

- If the meeting is open to those who are not members of Al-Anon Family Groups, so you can decide in advance how best to direct your talk;
- How long you will be expected to talk;
- If you will be expected to participate in a question and answer or open discussion session after your talk is concluded;
- If you are expected to tell your personal recovery story or to discuss a particular topic of the Al-Anon program;
- If you are expected to explain some of Al-Anon/Alateen's history.

AUDIO TAPE RECORDINGS

During open Al-Anon functions, the speakers are often taped. Therefore, it is up to members who consent to having their talk taped to protect their anonymity as they see fit. These tapes become the property of the taper and may be distributed via multi-media.

PLAN WHAT TO SAY

- Bear in mind that the purpose of your talk is to carry the Al-Anon/Alateen message of recovery by sharing your experience, strength, and hope.
- Give a brief description of yourself before you came to Al-Anon/Alateen, concentrating on your behavior and not that of the alcoholic or others.
- Describe how you have changed your life by using the tools of the program.
- Share on a particular Step, slogan, Al-Anon or Alateen book, or pamphlet that was especially helpful.
- Tell what Al-Anon means to you.
- Share how you are applying the Al-Anon program to your life and attitudes.
- Focus on your recovery.
- If asked to lead a closed meeting on a particular subject such as a Step, a slogan, or a topic from any of the hardcover books, it helps to express your views on the topic as it relates to your own experience.
- If you are asked to choose a subject, the Guideline, Suggested Programs for Meetings (G-13), will be helpful.
- It helps for Alateen speakers at Al-Anon groups to stress the need for and role of Alateen sponsors.

TIPS ON TALKING IN GENERAL

Some members find that preparing a brief outline helps.

Others use an index card with an opening sentence, some key phrases they can call upon in case they get lost somewhere in the middle, and a closing statement for a graceful conclusion.

If facing an audience is a problem, try using the technique of looking at a few individuals in different parts of the room.

Speak so you can be heard.

SPEAKING BEFORE A NON-AL-ANON AUDIENCE

- Make it clear that you are expressing your own views and not necessarily those of Al-Anon and Alateen as a whole.
- Keep in mind the public image of Al-Anon is gained in part from your appearance. Try to give a good account of what Al-Anon and Alateen are, what they do, and the services they offer to the community.
- Remember to mention Alateen.
- Preserve anonymity by protecting the identity of all Al-Anon, Alateen, and AA members.
- Tell the inviting organization and the press that only first names should be used in public and from the platform.
- Emphasize the importance of attending Al-Anon and Alateen meetings regularly.

KEEP IN MIND

- You are interesting — so be yourself and speak from the heart; don't be afraid to let others know you.
- You have an important message. Al-Anon Family Groups has brought you some peace of mind; let everyone know it.
- If your talk helps just one person, it has been successful. Remember, wherever you go, most people are friendly and receptive.
- You're there to carry the message that Al-Anon Family Groups offers a new way of life to those suffering because of a loved one's alcoholism.

FOR MEMBERS WITH OTHER AFFILIATIONS

There are no separate instructions for Al-Anon and Alateen members who belong to other anonymous groups (e.g. Alcoholics Anonymous, Overeaters Anonymous, etc.) or who are professionals in the alcoholism field.

When you speak as an Al-Anon member, whether before a fellowship or professional audience, keep the focus of your talk on:

- Al-Anon
- Yourself
- Your interpretation of the Twelve Steps

It is confusing both to potential Al-Anon or Alateen members and professionals to hear our message diluted by referring to other programs.

SHARE JOYFULLY

- Describe the effect Al-Anon or Alateen has had on your life. Concentrate on your growth and not that of the alcoholic or others.
- Take some literature along for reference and perhaps some extra pieces to hand out.
- Take the time to talk to potential newcomers on a one-to-one basis. Be sure to have names and phone numbers for referrals.

For further ideas and suggestions on speaking, see our hardcover books.

Cooperation between Al-Anon and A.A.

G-3

This guideline, and a similar guideline distributed by the Alcoholics Anonymous (A.A.) General Service Office, was developed through discussions between Al-Anon and A.A. staff.

The fellowships of Al-Anon (which includes Alateen for its younger members) and A.A. have a unique relationship. They were closely allied in their origins and are naturally drawn together by their family ties. Yet the Twelve Traditions emphasize that each works more effectively if it remains separate.

Tradition Six specifically states that Al-Anon is a separate entity. Therefore, in keeping with this Tradition, there can be no combining, joining, or uniting which would result in the loss of identity of either fellowship. Separateness rules out affiliation or merging, but it does not exclude cooperation with A.A. or acting together for mutual benefit. Al-Anon acknowledges with gratitude the spiritual contribution of A.A. and there can continue to be cooperation between Al-Anon and A.A. even while there are many Al-Anon members who have no contact with A.A. or A.A. members.

In order to differentiate between affiliation and cooperation, the Policy Committee of Al-Anon has prepared answers to some of the questions that frequently arise.

CAN THERE BE A COMBINED AL-ANON AND A.A. GROUP?

Each fellowship has a specific and separate purpose, and to remain so and abide by their respective Twelve Traditions, groups must be either A.A. or Al-Anon. The Al-Anon World Service Office (WSO) will not register a combined meeting, nor will the A.A. General Service Office (GSO) list a combined meeting.

CAN A.A. AND AL-ANON EXCHANGE SPEAKERS?

An occasional talk by an A.A. member at an open Al-Anon meeting can be interesting and helpful. When the program includes Al-Anon, Alateen, and A.A. speakers, it may help to keep the focus on Al-Anon by scheduling the Al-Anon speaker last.

Likewise, if invited to do so, Al-Anon members may tell their story at an A.A. meeting. Al-Anon members tell their own stories, not the alcoholics', and emphasize how Al-Anon has helped in their recovery.

SHOULD AL-ANON/ALATEEN MEMBERS PARTICIPATE OR SHARE AT A.A. MEETINGS?

Only A.A. members or those who have a drinking problem and have a desire to stop drinking may attend closed A.A. meetings. Open A.A. meetings welcome all those interested, including Al-Anon members, to attend and observe. Non-alcoholics should not participate in any A.A. meeting discussion unless specifically invited to do so.

WHAT IS THE ROLE OF THE AL-ANON MEMBER WHO IS ALSO A MEMBER OF A.A.?

The primary purpose of an Al-Anon group is to help families and friends of alcoholics. A.A. members are welcome to join Al-Anon if they feel their lives have been affected by someone else's drinking.

At Al-Anon meetings, members should not discuss their membership in A.A. or any other anonymous fellowship. Dual members' attendance at Al-Anon or Alateen meetings indicates their membership eligibility and their willingness to focus their attention on the help only Al-Anon can offer. See The Al-Anon Focus (P-45) and Al-Anon Spoken Here (P-53).

WHAT OFFICES CAN AL-ANON/A.A. MEMBERS HOLD IN AL-ANON?

Dual members are, by virtue of their Al-Anon membership, eligible to hold office in their Al-Anon or Alateen group. Active Al-Anon members who also belong to A.A. may serve as Alateen Group Sponsors by virtue of their Al-Anon membership (subject to the certification requirements in their Area). Because of the separateness of the Al-Anon and A.A. fellowships as stated in Tradition Six, Al-Anon policy is that world service offices beyond the group level, such as Group Representative (GR), should not be filled by Al-Anon/A.A. members. The need to focus at all times on the Al-Anon interpretation of the program could produce a conflict of interest or erode the separate singleness of purpose of each of the fellowships at Assembly and world service levels.

SHOULD AL-ANON AND A.A. HAVE COMBINED INFORMATION SERVICES/INTERGROUPS?

Where Al-Anon has not grown sufficiently to support its own Al-Anon Information Service or Intergroup, it may share

Institutions

Greetings,

The following reflects all of the activity in H&I since October 17th

✓ Turning Point Center for Family Counseling, - Nov. 27th - There were 3 on the panel, (two Al-Anon's & one Alateen). We shared our experience, strength and hope with about 25 professional new family counselors. They were interested in learning more about Al-Anon in order to refer more of their patients to our program. After the sharing, there was an engaging 45 minute period of Q & A. The feedback was very positive so we'll stay in contact with them for future panels - about every 6 months.

This was a great way to bring the program to another new segment in the community. Once again, it was very rewarding to work together with members of the Alateen Board and we're looking forward to more joint opportunities.

Volunteer Panel List – We're finding a lot of disconnected phone numbers on our list, please make sure when you submit your contact information, that it is up to date and complete.

The latest confirmed additions to our Volunteer Panel List:

- * Kevin O., Anaheim
- * Tricia C., Anaheim
- * Diane B., Anaheim Hills
- * Victoria V., Anaheim

We're hoping to have more panels after the New Year and will continue to announce them as they come in.

Happy Holidays!

Alateen Update November 2012

(AMIAS = Al-Anon Member Involved in Alateen Service)

Re-Certification Workshops: All certified AMIAS sponsors must attend a re-certification training workshop prior to May 1, 2013 to maintain certification.

Upcoming workshop dates include: (1) Saturday, January 19, 2013 from 9a-noon during the Sharing of Service [S.O.S.] at Glendale First United Methodist Church (Carlson Hall) 130 N. Kenwood. Glendale, CA 91206. This is the same location as the Area Assembly meetings; (2) 37th Annual Southern California AFG Convention April 5-7, 2013 with details TBD; or (3) Saturday March 23, 2013 in Orange County with detail TBD.

✓ *Please Note: While there is no charge to attend a re-certification training workshop, you must register for the S.O.S. workshop in order to participate in this offering. This is per the organizers of the S.O.S., Workshop and was explained as "If you attend a convention, you register for the convention and can attend all of the events involved with the convention. If you attend S.O.S., you register for S.O.S. and can attend all events involved with S.O.S. If you choose not to participate at S.O.S., there are other Re-certification Workshops (twice each month) through May 2013." Questions may be directed to Tim P, Alternate Delegate and Chair for S.O.S. at timapaulson@gmail.com.

✓ Alateen Meetings Directory: Alateen meetings are now listed on the Al-Anon Orange County website at <http://www.orangecountyal-anon.org> per decision of the Board at the November Board meeting. You can find the list by clicking on either "Meeting Directory" or "Alateen" on the left hand side of the home page.

✓ Amendments Task Force: This task force continues meeting and welcomes all feedback via the blog at the SCWS Main Blog site at <http://www.scws-al-anon.org/blog/index.php?blog+14>. Once at the Main Blog, click on "Alateen" in the right hand, green header to reach the Alateen blog site. Or you may contact Cathleen C., OC Intergroup Alateen Coordinator and Task Force member at 714-916-4687 or uclacathleen77@aol.com or Tarisa R., Task Force Chair at tramserran@yahoo.com. A motion to rescind the annual training workshop was tabled at the November Assembly meeting. The task force is open to receiving and considering all feedback and suggestions. Please utilize this opportunity.

✓ December 8, 2003 - Alateen Motion by WSO Board of Trustees: You may read the entire motion of the Board of Trustees regarding AMIAS sponsor requirements on page 80 at: <http://al-anon.org/members/pdf/summary/2004summary.pdf>

ALATEEN TASK FORCE

Minutes of Conference Call on Thursday, July 26, 2012

In attendance: Jayme C., Tarisa R., Alice, Linda T., JR D., Danny H., Josh S., Loreina C. Absent from call: Megan, Kathi L., Cathy S., Mary M., Pat H., Willie W.

Jayme reminded everyone that the new SCAC By Laws must pass at SCAC 2013. The SCAC By Laws must be voted on and accepted (at SCAC 2013) in order for SCAC to be in compliance and continue to use the Alateen name and to continue to fund raise in the Area.

Jayme recommended the following:

- New SCAC Committee to complete By Laws as quickly as possible. Tarisa is available and willing to assist in this process.
- It is recommended that the SCAC Committee begin an education process to inform the Alateens and AMIAS's of the contents of the By Laws prior to SCAC 2013.
- A room is available for use by the Alateens at the November Assembly. The Area will assist in whatever way the SCAC Committee requests.

In order to be in compliance the By Laws must contain the following:

- All adults attending SCAC must be certified AMIAS
- SCAC will comply with the Area Safety & Behavioral Requirements
- Area Treasurer will have oversight of SCAC bank account
- SCAC Board of Directors must include the Area Treasurer, Area Alateen Sponsor Coordinator and Area Alateen Sponsor, plus any one else the SCAC Committee wants to include that is over the age of 18 years [this is a requirement to maintain the 501(c)3 status].
- Area Treasurer to assist with annual Audit. This is required in order to maintain the 501(c)3 status.
- Income tax return must be filed annually. Area Treasurer can assist with this. This is required in order to maintain the 501(c)3 status.

Additional Info:

- SCAC Committee turnover meeting is on August 11, 2012.
- SCAC Task Force meetings to continue with SCAC 2013 Committee Chair and others to be named by Area Chair and SCAC 2013 Chair.
- The next SCAC Task Force meeting is scheduled for September 16. The Alateens will not be able to attend due to AZAC (Arizona Alateen Conference). More on this later. If SCAC Chair is not available for this meeting we will reschedule at discretion of SCAC availability.
- Linda stated that the final invoice from University of Redlands is approximately $12,000. There are ample funds in the bank account to pay the final invoice and the remainder of the debt (approximately $11,000). Linda will send those payments to the University of Redlands via check this week. Jayme requested that she notify Area Chair and Area Treasurer when the debt payment is made. Area Chair will then email a letter to the Area with the good news.
- The Alateens stated that they may attend the Area Committee meeting on August 18, 2012 to make a Thank You statement to the DRs.

Love in service,

How Are We Doing?

We, on the Service Board would like to hear from you. Do you have any comments or suggestions regarding our Al-Anon Information Office? Do you have any comments or suggestions regarding our Intergroup Meetings or for any particular committee? We need your input!!

District 66 has 13 cities in it compared to the rest of the districts have 9-8- or 10. When will we ever move our intergroup meetings easier to get to from S. Orange Co.?

Comments may be anonymously mailed to the office marked "Chair-Elect" or you may give them to your Intergroup Rep. and they will bring your comments to a member of the Service Board.
